Brainwave Magic That Unleashes Your Superpowers

A Monroe Institute®-developed experiential workshop

February 14, 2026 - 9:00am - 12:00pm

Trained by Certified Outreach Trainer Ignacio Diaz, Jr.

About the Experience

Brainwave Magic is an experiential introduction to the living relationship between sound, awareness, and consciousness. In this session, you'll be guided into relaxed, focused states of awareness where insight, creativity, intuition, and clarity naturally emerge. Using Monroe Institute®-based audio technology and simple, repeatable techniques, you'll learn how to recognize and intentionally access supportive brainwave states - states you already move through every day, now with awareness and choice

This is not about belief. It's about experience.

What You'll Explore

- How different brainwave states influence perception and performance
- Guided relaxation and focus techniques you can reuse anytime
- Experiential Monroe-based audio exercises, featuring Monroe Sound Science®
- Practical tools for creativity, emotional balance, and inner clarity
- A deeper sense of self-awareness you can carry into daily life

Who This Workshop Is For

- Individuals curious about consciousness and human potential
- Creatives, meditators, educators, and professionals
- Those new to Monroe Institute® programs
- Anyone seeking grounded tools for clarity, focus, and self-empowerment

No prior experience required.
